Chancery Court—First Tuesday after fourth Monday in February and first Tuesday after first Monday in August.

Wednesday, Oct. 25, 1916.

The men who lead are the men who read.

Gasoline for sale at the Chronicle office.

The Union prayer meetings during October will be held each Thursday in the M. E. Church at 7 p. m.

Mesdames Geo. E. Taylor and L. W. Martin spent part of last week in Knoxville guests of Mrs. Lester Hill.

Alva Potter is in Spring City today attending the Kemmer-Robinson wedding.

If you want pencils, fountain pens, pen points, ink wells, library paste, or paper fasteners come to the Chronicle office for them.

Mrs. M. W. West and son, Ben H. West and wife, arrived home from Chattanooga last Thursday after a visit of a few days with relatives.

At the Chronicle office you can get pen tablets, examination tablets, fountain pen ink in five and ten cent bottles, pocket note books, stenographer's note books, Crane's fine stationery in two-quire boxes and other stationery such as you do not find elsewhere in this county.

Splendid new assortment of Place Cards and Tally Cards at the Chronicle office; also score pads for Five Hundred.

Miss Lola Belle Snodgrass, who is teaching at Loudon this year, spent the week-end with hometalks here.

Crane's stationery by the quire and envelopes by the bunch at the Chronicle office. Nothing made better than Crane's.

Splendid assortment of Place Cards and Tally Cards; also Five Hundred score pads, at the Chronicle office.

Last week B. L. Wheeler and Wm. Hembree completed an extensive papering and painting job for several Kemmer families in Grassy Cove. The job lasted for six weeks. These men are skillful in their line and are much in demand throughout this section even outside of Crossville.

For Sale—One span of blue mules, weight about 850 pounds, work well anywhere. Will sell or trade. Mark Godfrey, Erasmus. 10-18-2t.

Master Ralph Oakes, son of J. M. Oakes, tried to swing a fast moving auto Tuesday in front of the public school building with the result that he was thrown and both bones of his right forearm were broken. Dr. V. L. Lewis set the bones and the boy will soon be O K again. It should be a lesson to other boys not to attempt to board moving autos.

Plenty of Time Books at the Chronicle office: two weeks' size and monthly, only 10c. Stenographers' note books also.

DINNER FOR ORCHESTRA.

Last week invitations were issued to a six o'clock dinner at the Elmore home, given by Mrs. Pearl E. Keyes and A. E. Horn in honor of the Crossville Orchestra. Covers were laid for twelve and the invited guests were: Misses Anne Melvin, Waldensia, Lola Belle Snodgrass, Violet Haley, Hattie Potter and Eula Bishop; Messrs Edgar Snodgrass, Will Guthrie, Elmore Keyes, Milo and Nathan Lemert. The favors were tiny candy boxes in the form of stringed instruments and on each person's glass perched a little bird with an envelope in its mouth containing the guest's fortune. As Mr. Horn's birthday occurred on Monday following the young lady guests presented him with a pretty little gold knife. Immediately following the lovely six-course dinner a number of other guests arrived and the evening was delightfully spent with music and other diversions, after which sandwiches, fruit punch, pickles, cheese balls, and cake were served.

NO MORE BACKACHE FOR HER.

Mrs. J. M. Gaskill, Etna Green, Ind., writes: "I suffered from severe backache and sharp pains. I could not stoop over. Foley Kidney Pills gave me such relief that I cannot praise them too highly." This standard remedy for kidney trouble and bladder ailments can be taken with absolute safety. For sale by Reed & Burnett.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good. I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

EASIER TO STOP NOW.

It is easier to check a bronchial cough now than later. Coughs grow worse the longer they continue. Foley's Honey and Tar stops tickling in throat, allays inflammation and irritation, restores sore and discharging membranes to healthy condition, opens congested air passages, and affords longed for relief. For sale by Reed & Burnett.

Monterey

Jack Frost formally made his appearance into the season's society here Sunday morning in full dress regalia. Putnam County Field Day exercises were considerably curtailed Friday by inclement weather. However the program was carried out. Monterey carried away most of the athletic prizes.

Gov. Hooper spoke here Monday night to a crowded room at the Castle theatre. He provided the necessary evidence to show that McKellar should be elevated to the position of Grand High Priest of the Ananias Club. There is no doubt but what either Patterson or Luke Lea would be more acceptable now to the mass of voters. But just stand you still, will you, and see if the "unfettered hosts" of democratic voters don't gulp McKellar down on Nov. 7th, without any conscientious scruples whatever. He has been stamped in the forehead with the brand of "unenviable record in Congress to the contrary notwithstanding." This method of "voting her straight" because father old, has ruined the state and damned the South and will continue to do so just as long as it is practiced. When, oh when, will the yeoman voters of the solid south ever get their eyes open so that they can see that dad's way of voting is detrimental to their own interests? The answer echoes and reverberates and still says, "When, oh when?"

Jimmie Robinson, a farmer living three miles south of town, had an exhibition here Saturday a pumpkin weighing sixty pounds, which he said was only an average weight for his pumpkin crop this year.

Jas. T. Livingston, sheriff of Fentress county, was here Friday night, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. J. O.

Adams.
Henry Peters, of Clarkrange, was here Monday night to witness the unveiling of McKellar's congressional record by Ben W. Hooper.
Oct. 23. Harry Hokes.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Cure fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

FARMERS' MEAT MARKET.

POSITIVE PROOF

That "Cut Price" Sales Are of no Benefit and Unfair to the Customer.

Is it not true that when you go to a store to make a purchase and you are told that the article you want is reduced in price, you immediately begin to examine it and wonder if it is not inferior, defective or out of style?

If you are a judge, you will finally come to that conclusion—which in nearly every case is true.

No merchant can afford to, nor will he, sell his goods without profit.

He has either been dishonest by asking too great a profit in the first place, or he has marked his goods up, then down again, or there is some defect in the goods offered.

It is easy enough to buy—we will say—suits for $8.00, mark them to sell for $12.00 and later mark them down to $10.00.

It looks attractive, but it is unfair to the customer who bought early and paid the long price.

With our system of strictly cash transactions and no reduction sales, we mark the suit for $10.00 and the price stays there.

The man who buys the first suit of us early in the season, pays no more than the man who buys the last one later on.

Can we not afford to do this and thus treat all our customers alike?

PRODUCE

We pay the top of the market all the time for potatoes, onions, beans and other produce.

You can better appreciate the close prices we make when you compare them with prices asked in other towns.

We consider the fact that we sell more goods at retail than any other store between Nashville and Knoxville as a proof that our prices and service are right.

Reed &amp; Burnett,

"The Firm That Satisfies."
